World's biggest brands see moderate value growth: Interbrand

Many of the world's top 100 brands are in a state of stagnation, according to Interbrand's Best Global Brand Report 2023 report. Brands grew 5.7% in value this year compared with 16% last year, taking the total brand value to $3.3 trillion ($3.1 trillion in 2022). Apple remains the top global brand 11 years in a row, the report said, while Airbnb is the fastest-growing. Interbrand cited lack of growth mindset, conservative brand leadership and uncertain forecasting behind the slowdown. "There is a need for improved business cases and better brand management to drive future investment and sustain growth within traditional sectors and beyond," Gonzalo Brujó, global CEO, Interbrand, said.

KPMG Global Delivery Center expands operations in Kolkata

KPMG LLP, a multinational audit, tax and advisory firm, has further expanded its presence in India with the opening of a new global delivery centre office in Kolkata. The new office, equipped with state-of-the-art facilities and collaboration spaces, will accommodate a growing team of professionals, a statement said. KPMG currently has over 250 professionals in Kolkata and has ambitious plans to double its workforce by FY'25, it added. This expansion reflects the firm's recognition of Kolkata's vibrant talent pool and its strategic importance to KPMG's growth strategy, the firm said. "The professionals in Kolkata are joining a team of individuals developing critical skills that support the audit today and the more data-driven audit we are driving towards," said KPMG U.S. national managing partner (audit operations) Tim Walsh.
